Planning a healthy lunchbox

So your children get the right amount of food and nutrients each day, make sure there is a wide variety of food in their lunchbox. All children, no matter what their weight, height, gender or age, need to eat from the five core food groups every day. To achieve this, include at least one food from each of the Australian Guide to Healthy Eating five core food groups in your child’s lunchbox daily.

Grain (cereal) foods, mostly wholegrain and/or high cereal fibre varieties
- Wholegrain bread and bread rolls
- Wholegrain cereals
- Wholegrain pita/pocket bread
- Lavash bread
- Turkish bread
- Fruit bread
- Home-made mini pizzas
- Pasta or noodles
- Rice
- Rice cakes
- Crackers and crispbreads
- Pikelets, muffins and scones

Vegetables and legumes/beans
- Salads – tomatoes, carrots, cucumber, celery, lettuce, sprouts, corn on the cob
- Vegetables – stir-fried, corn on the cob, carrot sticks, capsicum slices, snow peas
- Reduced fat potato salad or coleslaw
- Small can of baked beans

Lean meats and poultry, fish, eggs, tofu, nuts and seeds, and legumes/beans
- Sliced cooked lean meats – lamb, ham, chicken, roast beef, turkey
- Boiled eggs
- Tuna/salmon
- Legumes including baked beans, chickpeas, lentils, butter beans, kidney beans

Milk, yoghurt, cheese and/or alternatives, mostly reduced fat
- Reduced fat milk
- Soy milk (or other cow’s milk alternative) with added calcium
- Reduced fat cheese
- Reduced fat yoghurt

Include a bottle of water in the lunchbox every day

Fruit
- Fresh whole fruit
- Fruit salad
- Canned fruit in natural juice
- Dried fruit (30 g serve, or 4 dried apricot halves or 1 ½ tablespoons sultanas)

1 When using canned food, choose reduced salt where possible
2 The Australian Dietary Guidelines recommend reduced fat dairy products for children over the age of two years

Lunchbox menu planning is a great way to stay organised. It is a cost-effective, time-saving idea that helps you provide healthy lunches every day of the week.

Menu planning

The following pages will guide you in how to plan for a healthy lunchbox week:

Step 1

Pick a day that will become the day you plan the lunches for the rest of the week.

Step 2

Use our Weekly lunchbox planning tool to assist in deciding the morning tea, lunch and afternoon tea options for each day.

Being a smart shopper

- Plan ahead!
- Write a detailed shopping list from the menu you have planned - stick to this as you do your shopping.
- For ease, group items together in order of where you will find them in your supermarket.
- Check your fridge, freezer and pantry before you go shopping to ensure that you don’t buy any products that you already have.
- Try to shop on the days that you know a fresh delivery of food has come in - this is often a Monday.
- Check the unit pricing on the price tag (e.g. $/kg). Often you will find better bargains here than if you just look at the cost of the product.
- Try not to go shopping on an empty stomach - you may be more likely to buy unnecessary items.
