My attendance commenced, on the second day of school, in the year 1929 at the age of four years and nine months. I visited Malcolm Fullerton when he returned home from his first day to learn that at the end of the day all first year pupils had been given two boiled lollies.

This persuaded me to ask if I could start school the next day; approval granted I was off to school. The issue of two boiled lollies lasted for the first week and then reduced to one for the second week and nil for the remainder of my schooling period - I had been trapped. Bill Murphy 1929-35
